FROM ME TO YOU

Every gift has its own story. It tells a story about us, the giver, saying that for an entire year we kept an eye on wishes, observed dreams, and constantly surveyed secret desires. It tells a story about the recipient, saying that they are unique, irreplaceable and infinitely important, whose single smile is worth all the treasures in the world. It tells a story about both of us, saying that together we fill the days with joy and love, and for this we are grateful to each other.

It also tells a story of why we give gifts: for a single, perfectly happy moment. Surely, it's worth embarking on finding the right one.

MAGIC WARDROBE

It's not only the presents that make Christmas memorable for children. Preparing for the holiday together, browsing through beautifully gift-wrapped cosmetics, trying on shiny sparkling dresses and exquisite shoes and experimenting with special occasion hairstyles can be a more lasting experience than snatching any desired gift. Involve your children and let them help in creating festive outfits, bravely facing the prospect that your appearance this year will be more colourful than ever!

I LEARNED IT FROM YOU

In the hustle and bustle preceding the holidays, it's important to stop from time to time and honour family traditions, or to introduce new traditions with the younger generation. It's a perfect opportunity to show how a tie is tied impeccably, or how leather shoes are shined. When the gentlemanly outfit is ready from head to toe, play can commence! It's a good idea, for example, to organize a chess or poker tourney, or play Monopoly or Scrabble and find out who the winner is and whether the tables will be turned.

TUNED FOR THE HOLIDAYS

In addition to lights, fragrances and flavours, a necessary feature of the holidays is music. Christmas carols immediately create an intimate mood, especially when playing from a cutting-edge speaker like the B&O PLAY Beoplay A9. This one-point music system is a true contemporary classic where effective design meets the latest in sound technology.

No matter where you choose to place the A9, it's going to look beautiful with its graceful stands, and it can even be mounted on the wall with a special console.

Its appearance is only surpassed by its performance: it only requires a single digital source of music to fill the entire apartment with crystal clear sound. Holiday classics have never sounded better!

Experience the perfect audio now at the MOM Park iCentre store!

A BIT OF CHRISTMAS

Did you know that decorating the tree with fondant ("salon candy" in Hungarian) is an original Hungarian tradition? Salon candy is an invention from the second half of the 19th century; earlier, people hung fruits, gingerbread or stone fruits on the tree. Since Christmas trees were set up in the most prominent room of the home, the name of the candy required little thought. Initially, families used to make their own candy, wrapped in tinfoil with fringed ends, but subsequently confectioners also came up with their own secret recipes.

Szamos fondants have been adding to the brightness of the holiday for decades as their luscious flavour combinations come in packaging that is truly an eye candy. Marzipan versions are available in plain and filled varieties, while pralines come in three flavours to choose from.

Come and choose from salon candy specialties at the MOM Park Szamos Confectionary!

WILL YOU TELL IT AGAIN?

There is simply no way to get bored of our favourite Christmas stories because each retelling varies and is about a story that is a little different. They are passed on through generations, from hand to hand, only to spirit away young and old members of the family on a cold winter night. Dickens, Andersen, and the Grimm Brothers are all lined up with their most beautiful tales, and all we have to do is get wrapped in a cosy soft blanket and set out on a journey to our imagination.

At MOM Park, the holiday season is never just about shopping: once again we are always planning to add more substance to the festive hustle and bustle by Christmas programmes. This December, once again a magical decoration and a professional photographer awaits you and your family to let you have a personal family photo to remember the holidays. We did not forget our joint charitable act, so we are offering the funds raised from photography and the calendars available for purchase on-site to the benefit of the Humanitas Social Foundation.

Register now at the MOM Park website and commemorate the intimate moments of your anticipation between 3 and 16 December at the MOM Park's Christmas photo shoot!

And if you feel your holiday mood is worthy of a musical commemoration, try the Cziffra Street Piano located at the square in front of the Szamos Confectionary, offering an opportunity of self-expression for all music enthusiasts. What's more, the instrument will be played by the award-winning Young Talents of the Cziffra Festival on the 8th, 15th and 22nd day of December from 7.00 p.m.

AS GOLD AS THE GINGERBREAD

The most spectacular season of the year will be over in a blink of an eye, so stop for a moment and enjoy the glimmer! The sparkling Christmas lights won't divert the attention away from your festive outfit if the shine of gold is used smartly. You can choose a brocade dress with golden threads and wear precious metal jewels as accessories, but you could also highlight a simple outfit with glittering eye shadow, dramatic lashes and satin lipstick. Take your time to experiment and achieve that perfect impression for the family photos!

MAKE HOME FESTIVE

A perfect decoration is the foundation of good mood. In December, homes also don their festive cloak: when the season begins, wreaths are placed on doors, the first decorations and candles find their way to the shelves, and windows are highlighted by festoon lamps. If there is a small, or eternal, child in the family, in addition to the traditional decoration you may want to allow some playfulness and humour. Funny home decors might sound strange at first, but this is precisely their charm: they put a smile on everyone's face regardless of age, and you will reap success from young and old alike!

THE FUNNY SIDE OF THE TREE

There are as many homes as there are Christmas trees. Trees can be dressed up in countless styles: they can be elegant, monochrome, eclectic, minimal, playful, or even astounding! The results are only limited by imagination, considering that the range of glass decorations are expanding each year. You can choose between hundreds of shapes, colours, and sizes, so your Christmas tree can be a faithful reflection of your personality.

In the sea of classic and unconventional decorations, you too will find the one that suits your taste the most.

OH, HOW SWEET!

Not many of us know that from among the season favourites, we have the Germans to thank for the Christmas tree, the glass ornaments, the nutcracker, and even the small biscuits, the so-called plätzchen. According to tradition, in the Yuletide season sweets are prepared in abundance at every house and then distributed in the neighbourhood, to relatives and to family. We can embark on a long journey with biscuits in a decorative Christmas box, but they are also gorgeous piled up in an elegant cookie server when expecting guests. Do not try to play it safe with the quantities, and perhaps you'll have something left after the holidays, too.

DELICIOUSLY EASY

The most exciting part of the holiday season is perhaps the preparations themselves: coming up with surprises, purchasing gifts, decorating the home, finding the perfect tree, being secretive, and of course preparing the holiday menu – which does not have to be a hassle. When the family has gathered, they can team up in preparing the dishes and even the time spent in the kitchen turns into an experience! With the latest smart kitchen appliances and innovative equipment by AEG, work is quicker than ever, leaving more time for the really important things: for example, each other.

SERVING WITH STYLE

They say enjoying food is partly about the visuals. It does make a difference what sets you place in the table and how. Setting the table can reflect the stylishness of the holiday because this winter's collection features dark blue and gold colours, reminiscent of the night sky. This chic tableware will create an intimate atmosphere at the table, while the individual pieces are not only pleasing to the eye but are also practical. Moreover, collection items can be combined easily. The children can of course also be pleasantly surprised, for example by a funny little figurine.

TG PICCOLINO

RED TUNA FILET

Fish courses are a mainstay in festive menus, however, red tuna is still a rare sight in Hungary, especially when prepared as a steak – a rose-coloured treat that melts in the mouth with moderate amounts of salt and pepper. This is a perfect lunch or a light dinner with baked cherry tomatoes – a traditional Italian recipe – on the side.

FRUCCOLA

VIETNAMESE BEEF SOUP

Nothing compares to the comfort of a bowl of hot soup on a chilly day. Pho, the Vietnamese beef soup, can be delivered as a main course as it is a very hearty one-course dish: silverside, mushrooms, pakchoi, shoots and rice noodles are combined. Lime, cardamom, chili and coriander provide its piquancy.

SUPERFOOD SALAD

The festive season means successive lavish feasts, with irresistible, sweet delicacies consumed snacks in between. Spíler's unbelievably fresh and aromatic superfood salad with beetroot, sugar peas, soy beans, ricotta and a citrus dressing is the optimal choice if one seeks to consume flavourful energy while keeping in mind the tastes the future holds!

SUSHI MIX

At times new tastes are welcome in addition to the usual Christmas foods. Running sushi is defined by plates arriving to the tables on conveyor belts, allowing customers to choose from the various plates according to their taste and eat as they see fit. Seafood and vegetable sushis are available to sample. We heartily recommend the duck breast nigiri to gourmets, while quinoa varieties are available to satisfy the needs of a healthy lifestyle seeker.

READY, SET... LET IT SNOW!

Not knowing when the time for sledding arrives is somewhat magical. Will we have a white Christmas this year? Or will the first snow fall during the holiday season, on a slow, relaxed morning? Maybe New Year's Eve will bring true Winter? Will a light, powdery snowfall cover the land or will it be fat, gigantic flakes that block our windows? Whatever may it be, the snowproof, warm and impermeable equipment and a hardwood sled is to be ready for the adventures!

of the Blue Train
 Libri Bookstore
 348 pages, HUF 2 699

Agatha Christie, the grande dame of crime fiction, created the character of Hercule Poirot, the Belgian private detective in 1920. In The Mystery of the Blue Train, it is again Poirot who takes up the fight against crime. When the Blue Train, a favourite among the rich and famous, arrives at Nice, a guard attempts to wake Ruth Kettering from her slumbers. But he is faced with the fact that she will never wake again—for she has been brutally murdered. What is more, her precious jewels are missing, among them the legendary Russian ruby, the Fiery Heart....

and the Scent of Love
 Libri Bookstore
 432 pages, HUF 3 990

Coco Chanel, the dame of Parisian fashion, already had professional success under her belt when her personal life underwent a terrible crisis. The man she loved died in a car accident and the distraught woman was unable to cope with loss. In time, she found something new to live for, setting out to create an idea she had shared with her late lover: a Chanel perfume. The miracle that became Chanel No. 5 was the first step on a road that led to the discover of the scent of love.

Gods and Men
 Libri Bookstore
 238 pages, HUF 3 499

Three Hungarian married couples are stranded in a Swiss luxury villa. In the threatening shadow of nature, it is their past and present that is served alongside with select gourmet delicacies. The drama of modern man caught in a world stripped of all moral and rational guidance looms in their conflicts. Entrapped are not only persons, but love and sexuality, friendship and suspicion, ambition and power – and possibly the chance of dialogue.

Christopher Lawrence
Symphony of Seduction

Anima Bookstore
272 pages, HUF 2 990

So far, books have preferred the intimate secrets of authors, poets, painters among artists. However, love and romance obviously played a role in lives of composers as well, just like in the case of any mortal man. The work of Christopher Lawrence provides us a picture how these talented creative artists (Berlioz, Wagner, Schumann, Chopin among others) were just as fallible in this regard as their those who enthusiastically listen to their works.

The popular author tells us the story of two Ivans, fans of Beethoven. Miklós Vámos is a wise man, writing on personal relations, music, plans in his own manner, while the spirit of Beethoven is ever-present, not intrusively, yet emphatically. This book entertains and teaches at the same time just as if we were listening to the author speak himself. The story covers nine years, each a symphony. A prosaic masterpiece performed on paper.
